LOVE HER LOOK

GISELE BÜNDCHEN

A bouncy blow-dry whispers stealth wealth. Celeb coiffeur Oribe reveals how to get expensive-looking locks.

1 Maintain your body. "It's all about the blow-dry," says Oribe. Apply a generous dollop of volumising mousse through damp locks, whip your head upside down and massage your roots as you apply heat until hair is almost dry. Flip your head back up and section off locks and finish with a round brush.

2 Go for smooth curves. Pop in self-hold rollers around your crown while your hair is warm and easy to shape. Allow to cool, then run your fingers through strands to separate the curls. "Don't worry about making your hair too perfect or done—it looks better when it's just a little messy and totally you!" says Oribe.

3 Add texture. "Sexy hair should have lots of movement," he notes. Boost limp locks with texturing spray at the roots. Back-comb for added oomph and that sexy Brigitte Bardot look.
